2014 AIACC Residential Awards

The deadline to register is fast approaching – Aug. 27. That's next week, people. Read more . . .
Election Time

The 2015 Call for Nominations for AIACC Officers & Regional Directors is up and running. Everything you need to know to nominate or run is found here.

California Healthcare Facilities Forum

This serves as a friendly reminder to save the date for the Sixth Annual California Health Facilities Forum: Overcoming Uncertainty – What the Future Holds. More info provided here.

AIACC Online Accessibility Courses: Pre-Release Special Offer

The AIA California Council and aedKnowledge will be releasing the 2015 Accessibility online series in early September. These courses satisfy the State of California's continuing education requirements for all architecture license renewals in 2015. Read more . . .
Did you Know?

The AIACC 2014 audited financial statements are available to all members upon written request. Please forward your request to the attention of Shanon Calder.

In Passing: Bill Bocook, AIA

Bill Bocook, AIA, who died on June 6, was an enthusiastic friend of arcCA (Architecture California), the quarterly journal of the AIACC.